

slow wine

Slow Food International presents the 2015 edition of the

SLOW WINE GUIDE

featuring more than 70+ Slow Wine producers from 15 Italian wine regions at VINO Italian Wine Week 2015 presented by the Italian Trade Agency

Monday, February 2nd, 2015
12pm - 5pm

Tuesday, February 3rd, 2015
11am - 3pm

The Waldorf-Astoria Hotel - Empire Room
301 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10022

RSVP HERE!

Registration code: SPROD2015

For more information, please contact Tiffany Hoang at thoang@colangelopr.com / 646.624.2885 ext.(113).

Slow Wine Guide critiques wine through the perspective of the Slow Food philosophy giving prominence to small-scale winemakers who are using traditional techniques, working with respect for the environment and terroir, and safeguarding the incredible biodiversity of grape varieties that are part of Italy's heritage. Slow Wine is the only Italian wine guide that visits all of the winemakers included in the guide, in their vineyards.

The Slow Wine Guide 2015 English version is a selection of more than 300 of the best wineries. The large majority of the wineries recognized with the Snail or the Slow Wine symbol are certified organic and biodynamic. The guide uses three symbols to evaluate each winery:

THE SNAIL, the Slow Food symbol, signals a cellar that has distinguished itself through its interpretation of sensorial, territorial, environmental and personal values in harmony with the Slow Food philosophy

THE BOTTLE, allocated to cellars that show a consistently high quality throughout their range of wines

THE COIN, an indicator of great value

Join us to preview this innovative guide, discover new wines, and meet the people behind 50+ select Italian producers who represent the Slow Wine values.

Great guides,
like great wines,
begin in the soil

The only Italian wine guide to visit every winery it reviews

Slow Food Editore

slow food